Salient points observed by N S Hiranmayya, Esqr , I A , Deputy Commissioner, Hassan, during the inspection of Arsikere Municipal Office on 10-5-1943

1) The present Council was constituted with effect from 1-2-41 Mr Puttiah is in-charge of Presidentship and Mr B Channaveerappa is in charge of the Vice-President-ship

The Municipal Council have condutted meetings invariably every month and minutes of proceedings noted Action taken on the resolution should be noted

2) The Octroi Bye-Law as approved by Government in their Crder No L 9138-39/E.M1 57-40-15 dated 4-9-40 may be got printed and kept for sale as required by Section 46 of the Mysore Town Municipal Act, 1933

A survey of vacant spaces owned by the Municipality may be made and the results noted ir the Municipal Property Register

A sum of Rs 3517/10/6 has been collected up to the end of April 1943 against erd total demand of Ps 15365/2/3 leaving a balance of Rs 11847/7/9 The collection work is very poor It is hoped that all possible measures will be adopted and the outstanding balance considerably reduced by the end of the current official year, otherwise even the budget estimates will be upset

A schedule of rates verified from the Executive Engineer, Hassan, upto-date may be obtained and the same maintained in the office for reference

Nominal rolls are maintained for all works executed by the Municipal agency The Council may undertake the repairing of roads etc , which are of greater public importance

The President will see that all the contributions which have not yet been paid are paid before the close of the official year and the same reported to this office

The Municipality has fallen off in its standard of efficiency

1) The collections under mohatarfa and water rate are very poor

2) Several of the proscribed registers are not maintained

3) Prompt action has not been taken for issue of bills and notices and precaution of coercive processes

4) The baki patti has not been checked in detail and action taken in respect of each defaulter

5) There are heavy arrears outstanding under Miscellaneous arrears

It is hoped that the Council will attend to each of these points at an early date and show substantial progress by the end of this current year
